DRUG-FREE & ALCOHOL-FREE WORKPLACE
APPLICANT NOTIFICATION &
ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The Town of Davie has determined that drugs (including alcohol), taken for non-medicinal purposes, have no place on the job. An employee's use of drugs and/or alcohol subjects the employee, co-workers and the public to unacceptable safety risks, impairs an employee's ability to perform on the job, and undermines the Town of Davie's ability to operate effectively and efficiently. Accordingly, the Town of Davie has implemented a drug-free and alcohol-free workplace program in keeping with both the spirit and intent of the Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1988, 41 U.S.C. Section 701, et seq. It is a condition of employment that all employees abide by this policy concerning drugs and alcohol.

Tests for the presence of controlled substances will be administered following a conditional offer of employment to:

- all applicants for full-time regular and full-time temporary positions and part-time regular positions at the time of the pre-employment physical examination; and
- all applicants for part-time temporary positions.

The Human Resources Department will schedule the examination of eligible applicants. At the time of screening, applicants are to identify themselves by a driver's license or other means of photographic identification. Parental consent will be required for applicants under eighteen years of age.

The confirmed presence of a controlled substance without adequate explanation will result in termination of the applicant's candidacy. Applicants may contest or explain the confirmed positive test result to the Town of Davie within five working days after written notification of the confirmed positive test result. Applicants who refuse to be tested for controlled substances, or who fail to report for testing as directed, or who have a confirmed positive test result, will be removed from consideration for employment and shall be precluded from reapplying for employment with the Town for a period of one (1) year from date of refusal, failure to report, or confirmed positive test result.

If the test results are positive, the applicant may, at his/her own expense, have a Gas Chromatography - Mass Spectrometry performed on the original sample by a qualified laboratory. Written results from the laboratory are to be provided to the Human Resources Department.

I have read the above and am aware of the above policy.

NOTICE TO APPLICANT OF INTENT TO OBTAIN AN INVESTIGATIVE CONSUMER REPORT

Dear Applicant:

In connection with your application for employment, we would like to procure certain background information concerning you which is contained in an investigative consumer report. An investigative consumer report may contain information regarding your: credit worthiness, credit standing, credit capacity, character, general reputation, personal characteristics, mode of living, and/or criminal background. This information may be gathered from personal interviews with your neighbors, friends, and/or associates (e.g., former employers).

Before we may procure an investigative consumer report, you must authorize such procurement in writing. You have the right to decline authorization for us to procure an investigative consumer report. However, we will not consider you further for employment if you so decline.

In addition to information to be obtained from other sources without personal interviews, we intend to ask your former employer(s) the following questions concerning:

- What were the dates of your former employment?
- What position(s) did you hold?
- Were you ever demoted or otherwise disciplined? If so, what were the circumstances.
- Did you perform your job in a satisfactory manner?
- Under what circumstances did you leave?
- Would you rehire the individual?

On the back of this form you will find a release which will allow us to obtain an investigative consumer report concerning the foregoing questions. Please read the release carefully before signing it and indicating your choice regarding disclosure. Additionally, please note that the release authorizes us to obtain an investigative consumer report now and at any other time during your employment.

Attached to this letter is "A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act."

Sincerely,

Mark Alan
Human Resources Director

A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) is designed to promote accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of every “consumer reporting agency” (CRA). Most CRA’s are credit bureaus that gather and sell information about you - such as if you pay your bills on time or have filed bankruptcy -- to creditors, employers, landlords, and other businesses. You can find the complete text of the FCRA, 15 U.S.C. 1681-1681u, at the Federal Trade Commission’s web site (<http://www.ftc.gov>). The FCRA gives you specific rights, as outlined below. You may have additional rights under state law. You may contact a state or local consumer protection agency or a state attorney general to learn those rights.

- You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses information from a CRA to take action against you - such as denying an application for credit, insurance, or employment - must tell you, and give you the name, address, and phone number of the CRA that provided the consumer report.
- You can find out what is in your file. At your request, a CRA must give you the information in your file, and a list of everyone who has requested it recently. There is no charge for the report if a person has taken action against you because of information supplied by the CRA, if you request the report within 60 days of receiving notice of the action. You also are entitled to one free report every twelve months upon request if you certify the (1) you are unemployed and plan to seek employment within 60 days, (2) you are on welfare, or (3) your report is inaccurate due to fraud. Otherwise, a CRA may charge you up to eight dollars.
- You can dispute inaccurate information with the CRA. If you tell a CRA that your file contains inaccurate information, the CRA must investigate the items (usually within 30 days) by presenting to its information source all relevant evidence you submit, unless your dispute is frivolous. The source must review your evidence and report its finding to the CRA. (The source also must advise national CRA’s -- to which it has provided the data -- of any error.) The CRA must give you a written report of the investigation, and a copy of your report if the investigation results in any change. If the CRA’s investigation does not resolve the dispute, you may add a brief statement to your file. The CRA must normally include a summary of your statement in future reports. If an item is deleted or a dispute statement is filed, you may ask that anyone who has recently received your report be notified of the change.
- Inaccurate information must be corrected or deleted. A CRA must remove or correct inaccurate or unverified information from its files, usually within 30 days after you dispute it. However, the CRA is not required to remove accurate data from your file unless it is outdated (as described below) or cannot be verified. If your dispute results in any change to your report, the CRA cannot reinsert into your file a disputed item unless the information source verifies its accuracy and completeness. In addition, the CRA must give you a written notice telling you it has reinserted the item. The notice must include the name, address and phone number of the information source.

- You can dispute inaccurate items with the source of the information. If you tell anyone -- such as a creditor who reports to a CRA -- that you dispute an item, they may not then report the information to a CRA without including a notice of your dispute. In addition, once you've notified the source of the error in writing, it may not continue to report the information if it is, in fact, an error.
- Outdated information may not be reported. In most cases, a CRA, may not report negative information that is more than seven years old; ten years for bankruptcies.
- Access to your file is limited. A CRA may provide information about you only to people with a need recognized by the FCRA -- usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business.
- Your consent is required for reports that are provided to employers, or reports that contain medical information. A CRA may not give out information about you to your employer, or prospective employer, without your written consent. A CRA may not report medical information about you to creditors, insurers, or employers without your permission.
- You may choose to exclude your name from CRA lists for unsolicited credit and insurance offers. Creditors and insurers may use file information as the basis for sending you unsolicited offers of credit or insurance. Such offers must include a toll-free phone number for you to call if you want your name and address removed from future lists. If you call, you must be kept off the lists for two years. If you request, complete, and return the CRA form provided for this purpose, you must be taken off the lists indefinitely.
- You may seek damages from violators. If a CRA, a user or (in some cases) a provider of CRA data, violates the FCRA, you may sue them in state or federal court.

RELEASE TO PROCURE A CONSUMER REPORT

I have read the "Notice to Applicant of Intent to Obtain Consumer Report" letter on the back of this form.
